Says Chances for Peace in Laos Slim

By ROY ESSOYAN

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma said today chances for restoring peace in Laos now are "very slim."

"I have no confidence in anybody, including Pathet Lao," the neutralist leader said. "Promises given me have too frequently not been honored."

Souvanna's comments, in response to questions submitted by The Associated Press, were his first on the new and major crisis facing Laos since he returned Saturday night from the Plaine des Jarres after a Pathet Lao attack on two control commission helicopters.

They came not long after the pro-Communist Pathet Lao threatened to resume fighting in Laos unless right-wing forces clear out of territory under Pathet Lao control.

The new threat came at a time when the attack on the helicopters had halted peace talks and raised fears that Phouma might resign, throwing Laos into chaos.

A Pathet Lao broadcast said right-wing forces of Deputy Premier Phoumi Nosavan must be withdrawn from areas controlled by Pathet Lao.

Rockefeller Honeymoons in Caracas

By RICHARD G. MASSOCK

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and his bride honeymooned today amid the idyllic beauty of his Venezuelan mountaintop ranch while debate continued back home on the effect of the marriage on his political future.

Rockefeller and his bride, the former Margaretta Fidler Murphy, arrived Sunday at his 1,235-acre Monte Sacro ranch about 110 miles southwest of Caracas.

The smiling couple flew to the honeymoon retreat by private plane after arriving in Caracas from New York on a commercial liner. He New York governor said they expect to remain in Venezuela about two weeks.

It was drizzling when they landed and a shower of rice greeted the newlyweds as they stepped out of the plane.

Chatting in Spanish with newsmen, Rockefeller predicted his second marriage will be blissful. He said they decided to spend their honeymoon here "because we love Venezuela."

The governor, 54, and his bride, an attractive woman of 36, stood atop a wing of their private plane for the brief news conference. Rockefeller, considered a leading candidate for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination, brushed aside questions about his political future.

He showed the same reticence as he left New York's Idlewild Airport telling newsmen here: "I know you would like to discuss politics with me, but I don't think this is the time or the place. There will be plenty of chances for the subject and decisions at another time."

Political circles in the United States were divided over the effect the marriage will have on Rockefeller's career.

Some felt the romance was an act of political suicide for the governor. They noted that no divorced man has won the presidency of the United States.

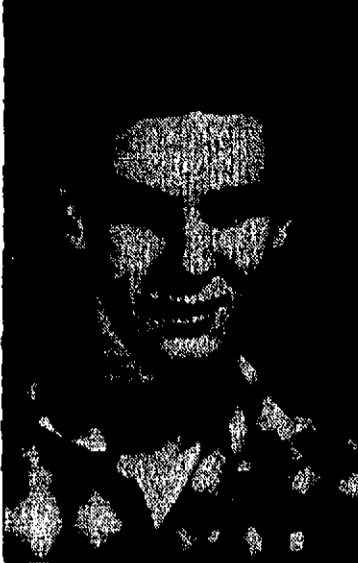

Others believed Rockefeller's emergence into a new life of happiness with an attractive wife might enhance his popularity.

Rockefeller was divorced March 16, 1962, after 31 years of marriage, by Mary Todhunter Clark Rockefeller, 55, like her successor a product of Philadelphia society. The couple had five children, but one son, Michael, was lost on an expedition near the New Guinea coast shortly after the governor and his wife separated.

Mrs. Murphy obtained a divorce in Idaho on April 1 from Dr. James S. Murphy, 41, a medical researcher for the Rockefeller Institute. They have four children, aged 3 to 12.

Passengers accompanying the Rockefellers on the flight from New York said they held hands for a while after a steak and champagne lunch. They read New York newspaper accounts of their wedding Saturday at the Rockefeller family estate in Pocantico Hills, in New York's Westchester County, and exchanged comments on photographs of them.

Lesley Stephens was third with a grade point average of 3.76. He is the son of Willie S. Stephens of California and Mrs. Ben Palmer of Hope.

Billy Wilson was fourth with a grade point average of 3.15. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Wilson of Dallas.

Band Students Give a Fine Performance

Fred Waring would have been pleased with the performance of "Music of Christian Patriotism" by the Community Chorus and the Hope High School Band which used his arrangements for the presentation Sunday night in the First Baptist Church.

From the impressive "Give Me Your Tired Your Poor" to the stirring "Battle Hymn of the Republic," the capacity audience was inspired and filled with gratitude for living in a musical America. The 32 members of the Hope High Band, a professional performance under the baton of Jon Barabotto, and the chorus sang as one finely tuned instrument.

Gilbert Thomas was the director and Mrs. H. A. Spraggins was the organist. The Rev. Rufus Sorrells offered the opening prayer, the Rev. Clyde Goddard the offertory prayer and Dr. D. T. Lawrence the benediction.

Lolly Prather, daughter of May-ton Prather of Hope, is president of the student body at the Arkansas Baptist Hospital School of Nursing. Lolly leaves Little Rock Wednesday for the National Student Nurses Convention in Atlantic City, N. J. She will also visit New York City and Philadelphia.

Only $125 is needed to pay for the piano in the Hempstead County Memorial Nursing Home, and there are probably many who would like to make contributions as memorials to friends or relatives. For details contact Mrs. Hollis Luck.

Cheerleader Jennifer Cox and All-State Halfback David Porterfield appear as Mr. and Mrs. Hope High in the "Bobcat" annual for 1963 which was issued last week. Jennifer was selected by the student body as Bobcat Beauty Queen. Other beauties featured are Jeanne Lowe, senior. Karen Lively, junior. Jan Gaines, sophomore. The annual was not dedicated to any one person because its theme, "The Many Faces of Hope High," is a dedication to all the students. Co-editors were Jan Ellis and Mary Ann Beatty.

Court Ruling Favorable to State Realtors

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court held in a 5-2 opinion today that real estate brokers can fill out simple, standardized forms in the course of their business without practicing law.

The ruling modified the court's holding in the so-called Block decision which prohibited real estate men from preparing 24 specific documents on grounds that such preparation constituted practice of law.

Justice Ed McFaddin, in a strongly worded dissent, said today's decision modified the Block decision in a way as to make it practically meaningless because it did not say which of the 24 hitherto prohibited documents could now be prepared by realtors.

McFaddin said the court should affirm the Crawford County case and then, if it wanted to change the procedures for completing such forms, it should exercise its power under Amendment 28 to draw up rules regulating the practice.

The ruling came in a suit filed by Alford Creekmore, a Mountainburg notary public, against Clyman Izard and others, representing the Crawford County Bar Association.

Creekmore was the loser, both in the lower court and on appeal because the Supreme Court said today that notary publics cannot fill out the forms under discussion without engaging in the practice of law.

Creekmore did get one dispensation from the Supreme Court, however. It held that the lower court had erred in enjoining him from preparing income tax returns and said he can legally do this.

The real estate question got into the Creekmore case on an intervention by Everett O. Sewell, a Crawford County real estate broker.

The Supreme Court took judicial notice of the fact that there is no attorney within 20 miles of Mountainburg and that the Block decision had resulted in extending the time required for preparation of certain simple documents from four to five minutes to from three to four days because of the requirement that a lawyer be employed.

The form of the simple, standardized documents which real estate brokers may now fill out must be approved by a lawyer, but document does not have to be, according to today's Supreme Court ruling. The court said real estate agents should not charge a fee for filling out the documents.

David Waddle and Sammy Strong won the District Golf tournament over the weekend and will represent the district and Hope in the state meet.

Dominican Army Set for Possible Invasion of Haiti

By ISAAC FLORES

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—The Dominican government sent thousands more troops to the Haitian border today for a possible invasion of the neighboring Negro republic, government sources reported.

They said Dominican Air Force planes were flying patrols along the border and that navy vessels had linked up with U.S. warships patrolling the Caribbean off Haiti.

Tanks and assault vehicles were reported moving into position. The sources said they could not give the exact number of troops sent to the border in the latest movements but estimated them to be "in the thousands." They added that the troops moved into positions overnight in the central border area.

Earlier, the government reported it had about 1,000 troops posed at one border point.

The government sources said light and medium tanks and other assault vehicles were deploying a large border area. They did not pinpoint the locations.

The Dominican forces apparently needed only the word from President Juan Bosch to push across the border.

Bosch is reported ready to send his forces into Haiti at the slightest provocation.

'Spartacus' Superb Film at Saenger

If you followed this newspaper's recommendation and saw the motion picture "El Cid" a few weeks ago you will go to the Saenger this Monday night and take in another film that is destined to be a classic on the re-run circuit.

It is "Spartacus," the courageous and bloody story of the revolt of the gladiators and slaves in Old Rome. There is history in the dates, 73-71 B.C.—but this is history that is guaranteed to keep you on the edge of your seat most of the three hours' running time. There is but one night performance, the program beginning at 7:15 and the feature about 15 minutes later.

Kirk Douglas plays Spartacus, leader of the gladiators' break for freedom; but he is only one of seven world-famous stars in a picture that took four Academy awards. For instance, your reviewer, missing some of the names in a prodigious cast, was haunted throughout the picture by the command performance of the actor who played Marcus Crassus, Roman aristocrat and general—who finally brought Spartacus to grief.

And well the writer might be haunted—for he discovered at the end, to his chagrin, that the character in question was Laurence Olivier, greatest living actor in the world. "Spartacus" is that kind of picture—tense, bloody, beautiful—both in scenery and human emotion.

There was a crisis in Rome, which ruled the world over the backs of millions of slaves—and "Spartacus" tells the story of this perilous moment, just before the Republic was to slide off the deep end into Dictatorship. The gladiator Spartacus did not win his fight, but his effort told thinking men what was to happen to Rome within a few years. As a matter of fact, the man played by Laurence Olivier, Marcus Crassus, was with in a decade, 60 B.C., to form the first triumvirate that ended the Republic and started the Dictatorship—Pompey, Caesar, and Crassus.

Spartacus, a slave from Thracia in the Balkans, is sold to a gladiator school in Capua, Italy. He perfects his art, then leads the gladiators in a gigantic break. They pick up arms from the slain Romans, and acquire a huge army from slaves they liberate along the way—until the entire south end of the Roman Republic is a flame with revolt. Army after army from Rome is destroyed—until the panicked Roman Senate names Crassus to put out the fire.

"Spartacus" ranks with "Gone With the Wind" in size and shape and luster. Its cast is immeasurably superior. Here are the top stars: Kirk Douglas, Laurence Olivier, Jean Simmons, Charles Laughton, Peter Ustinov, John Gavin, and Tony Curtis.

If you don't see it now you might as well brace yourself for return engagements as the years roll by.

Peace Mission in Copters Are Fired on

By ANTOINE YARED

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Two International Control Commission helicopters were shot at and set afire Friday in east-central Laos while neutralist Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma was there on a peace mission.

Informed sources said the helicopters apparently were attacked by the pro-Communist Pathet Lao, which has barred the three-nation commission from its territory in the area of the Plaine des Jarres. One unconfirmed report said four persons were killed.

A Pathet Lao broadcast charged the rival neutralist forces of Gen. Kong Le shot at the helicopters in an effort to sabotage peace talks. It also asserted a Canadian on the commission team was wounded in the leg.

A commission spokesman in Vientiane said, however, a message from the team said: "We are all safe." He confirmed that the two helicopters were set afire.

The commission, made up of representatives of India, Canada and Communist Poland, had accompanied Souvanna Phouma to the Plaine des Jarres on another of his missions to try to keep the peace between his neutralists and the Pathet Lao.

French sources said the two helicopters were fired at after they landed on the Khang Khay-Plaine road to evacuate dead and wounded from a mine explosion that blew up a French truck.

The sources said the inspection team had left the helicopters and only the pilots and copilots had remained aboard when they were hit by .50-caliber machine gun fire, setting both afire.

The sources said the helicopter pilots were French and their fate was unknown.

The road where the helicopters were shot at and the area surrounding it are under Pathet Lao control.

Church Attendance Better Than Usual

CHICOPEE, Mass. (AP)—The 10:45 a.m. service at Federated (Protestant) Church was better attended Sunday than usual.

The Rev. C. W. Kirkpatrick announced last week that the service would be for sinners only "and all saintly persons are requested to stay home."

Some 135 persons showed up for the service. The Rev. Mr. Kirkpatrick said usual Sunday attendance is between 105 and 115.

Villa's Widow Is Honorary Citizen

COLUMBUS, N.M. (AP)—With tears rolling down her cheeks, Luz Corral de Villa, widow of the Mexican rebel Francisco (Pancho) Villa, was made an honorary citizen of New Mexico Sunday.

A certificate of citizenship was presented to her at a joint observance of Cinco de Mayo—May 5—Mexican national holiday, by neighboring towns of Palomas and Chihuahua, Mexico, and Columbus.

Mayor J. V. Carron of Columbus made the presentation.

Pancho Villa raided Columbus in 1916, killing 16 residents. He was chased into Mexico by Gen. John J. Pershing but escaped.

Matador Gored Badly by Bull

TIJUANA, Mexico (AP)—A festive crowd of 10,000 at a Tijuana bullfight was shocked into shrieks and moans when a bull gored an offguard matador Sunday.

The 900-pound black bull caught Victor Huerta in the upper thigh and hurled him through the air. Then it gored him in the face.

Huerta, about 22, was taken to a Tijuana sanitarium. Doctors said he was in serious condition.

A Portuguese matador, Manolo do Santo, killed the bull.

est provocation.

Except for an occasional truckload of troops passing through the streets, Santo Domingo was calm. There was no sign that the Dominican people had shifted to a war footing.

Bosch, meanwhile, met with Alberto Zuleta Angel, chairman of an Organization of American States peace mission. Details of the conference were not disclosed.

In Washington, the OAS Council had an executive session on tap to study the mission's report on the Haitian crisis.

Zuleta declined to comment on reports that the four other members of his mission were seeking in Washington wider powers to deal with the threat of a clash between Haiti and the Dominican Republic. The two countries share the Caribbean island of Oispaniola.

Describing the situation as "highly tense," Gonzalo Facio of Costa Rica, president of the OAS Council, called an executive session of the council to study the four-nation mission's report on its survey last week of the situation.

The Dominican troops were rushed to the border town of Jimani Sunday night amid unconfirmed rumors that President Juan Bosch would order an invasion unless Haitian President Francois Duvalier's regime made good on its promise to give safe conduct out of the country to 15 political opponents who took refuge in the Dominican Embassy in Port au Prince.

One highly placed source said Bosch was ready to "use any excuse" to set off an armed clash with Duvalier's forces.

The Dominican charge d'affaires in Port au Prince, Frank Bobadilla, returned to Santo Domingo with a letter the Haitian political refugees had sent to all foreign diplomatic missions in Port au Prince.

The letter quoted D.S. Ambassador Raymond Thurston as saying he had information Duvalier had ordered his civilian militia, the Tonton Macoute, to invade the embassies harboring opponents if his regime appeared threatened.

The letter added that Duvalier would kill the refugees if Haiti is invaded.

A former Haitian army officer said "Duvalier had gone quite berserk." The ex-officer, Louis Moise, hid in the Venezuelan Embassy in Port au Prince and arrived in Kingston, Jamaica, Sunday. He said there is a torture chamber in Duvalier's palace.

Duvalier broke diplomatic relations with the Dominican Republic last week, and the Dominican Embassy staff has returned home. Colombia has taken over the Haitian refugees in the Dominican Embassy.

Duvalier has declared martial law and imposed a night curfew. Apparently his chief target now is

The General, ramrod stiff, and I followed Nichols softly down the hall. I could see the doctor's wiry figure outlined in the screen door. He was talking, quietly but with a kind of urgency.

"...and nobody is all courage, kiddo," I heard Hayburn saying. "Your mother lived in a complete hell and she wasn't able to take it all like a Christian martyr. She went on living with your father who was a vicious sadist, in ways you couldn't even imagine."

"Why did she stay with him?"

I was startled by the sound of her voice. It was tense, near some breaking point. I had the feeling the Doctor was driving too hard in some wrong direction. I caught a glimpse of Nichols' face. He was thinking as I was. He took a quick step toward Hayburn but the doctor made a gesture behind him, urgent, imperative.

"Because your father made it clear to her that he would and could use legal means to keep you with him. Your mother was free to go, but she would have to leave you with a man who might turn his talents for cruelty in your direction. She stayed on your account. She submitted to things that only she can tell you about—submitted to them so that she could be a barrier between you and a man who was a monster, Dawn."

"How do you know all this?"

Dawn asked, in a shrill voice.

"I'm a doctor, kiddo. I've

Unmarked Grave for U.S. Hero

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—An unmarked grave in Hot Springs, Ark., Cemetery has been identified as that of one of the U.S. Navy's nine double Congressional Medal of Honor winners.

A two-year search by the Navy for the late Chief Water Tender John King ended Thursday with the discovery of the grave by Aviation Machinist Billy Joe White and Father Edward Mooney, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Hot Springs.

The Navy began the search when it named a guided missile destroyer for King in 1960.

King received his first Congressional Medal of Honor in 1901 for heroism at the time of "an accident to the boilers" on the U.S.S. Vicksburg on May 29, 1901.

He got the second medal in 1909 when a similar accident happened aboard the U.S.S. Salem on Sept. 13, 1909.

The search was led to Hot Springs Calvary Cemetery after Hot Springs Army-Navy hospital records revealed that King had died in 1938. This led to a search of the files of the Hot Springs Sentinel Record, which showed where King was buried.

White, a member of a Hot Springs Naval Reserve unit which was conducting the search, contacted Father Mooney who obtained cemetery records from the church.

The cemetery records showed that individuals buried in 1938 were placed in a single line of graves. By counting the graves, Father Mooney and White were able to find the one in which they say King is buried.

King served in the Navy from 1893 until 1923. He had been a resident of the Naval home at Philadelphia, Pa. until he suffered a fall and was transferred to the Hot Springs hospital for treatment.

King was born in 1862 in Ireland. He was 75 at the time of his death.

Lt. Cmdr. Trice Edwards, officer in charge of the Hot Springs Naval Reserve unit, said King's grave would be marked and a memorial built.

He said also that the unit would try to raise funds for the construction of a cabin at Camp Yorktown Bay on Lake Ouachita near Hot Springs in honor of King. The camp was founded and is operated by the Hot Springs Navy League.

Nikita's Successor Reportedly Ill

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—Reports persisted Friday that Frol Kozlov, Premier Khrushchev's designated successor, is ill. But some sources insisted he is on vacation.

Kozlov failed to show up for either of the big Red Square demonstrations this week, the one for Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro Sunday and the May Day parade.

His absence recalled that he missed the May Day festival two years ago because of a heart attack. This fact may have given rise to the report that he was sick again.

The report that he is ill is heard among diplomats from both sides of the Iron Curtain. All attempts to get information either from newspapers or from the government press spokesmen have been unavailing.

Kozlov took Khrushchev's place as chief man in the government and party during the premier's vacation last month.

He said also that the unit would try to raise funds for the construction of a cabin at Camp Yorktown Bay on Lake Ouachita near Hot Springs in honor of King. The camp was founded and is operated by the Hot Springs Navy League.

Doubt Seems Bugging the Businessman

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — A doubt is bugging many businessmen today: Is the present upturn in activity real or just a temporary fever flush due to the special situation in the steel industry?

Steel's influence the past month is apparent enough. But more industries with only a nodding acquaintance with that basic one are showing increased activity of their own. And the recovery from the sluggishness of the long hard winter is daily more reassuring.

Steel's role is this: Many customers are pouring in new orders for delivery from now through July and the mills are humming. In part, the steel users are taking care of their own better sales outlook, but perhaps in greater part their aim is to build up stocks against the possibility of a steel strike late in the summer.

And the recent price rise on certain steel products has already acted as a tonic, many business observers feel. The very fact that the steel companies were able to do so this year without arousing the opposition of the federal administration, as they did in their sorrow a year ago, has made many other profit-squeezed industries believe the entire climate for business is improving. And a number have quietly raised prices on products they felt were in strong enough demand to let them stick.

The total of personal incomes is rising in many sections of the nation. And consumers are spending their gains. Retail sales have advanced with the coming of spring. The auto industry is particularly pleased. Another token of consumer psychology is shown in the instalment debt figures, which have advanced each month this year.

Employment totals have risen, even if unemployment stays sticky because of a labor force that also continues to grow. The Labor Department says that continued claims for state unemployment benefits dropped in the week ended April 20 to the lowest figure since December.

Most corporations are reporting profits currently running ahead of a year ago. Annual meetings of stockholders are cheered by predictions that 1963 as a whole will top 1962.

And to underscore this, Moody's Investors Service reports that more publicly owned corporations increased dividend payments last month than in any previous April — 91, compared with 41 a year ago. For the first four months of this year 435 raised payments, also a new high.

The National Association of Purchasing Agents reports that in April 47 per cent of its member companies had increased orders; 46 per cent had higher production; and 25 per cent increased employment, compared with 19 per cent in March.

The agents feel this means that "the total business improvement may be real and not just the hedging" against a possible steel strike.

Seeks Mystery in Stories of Murder

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Rich and important publisher Karen Holt was driving to her country house and struck a girl. Karen's phantasmagoric second-rate writer-husband persuaded her to say nothing about the girl's death. And away we went Sunday night on a nice old-fashioned murder mess on NBC's "Show of the Week."

As a matter of personal taste, I prefer my murder stories in the form of mysteries. "Something to Hide" was not so much a whodunit as a story about heaping one lie upon another until the whole structure collapsed.

There was a little snapper ending with a last-minute murder and solution. There was also, at the end, a strange Mona Lisa smile on the face of the heroine that suggested she hadn't been up to any good.

Colleen Dowdust competently played the suffering lady publisher. Dirk Kooiman was properly venal as her weak, conniving husband. Henry Jones was the polite of a set containing pictures of Bertrand Russell and Eddie Rick- enbacker, for example.

It followed the rigid format of daytime game shows: celebrity contestants and "just folks" plus the usual confusing clutter of electronic equipment — buzzers, flashing numbers and such.

It was a dull, awkward little show, reminiscent of so many others, but smart rural district attorney who solved everything — a nice role that should have been larger.

It was all good fun. Don McNeill of radio's perennial "Breakfast Club" program is host of an exceptionally tedious little television guessing game called "Take Two," which made its first appearance Sunday afternoon on ABC.

The object is for the teams of players to pick two pictures with something in common out of four shown: actors Lew Ayres and Richard Chamberlain, both of whom played "Dr. Kildare," out

Kennedy Doesn't Ask Faubus' Aid

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval F. Faubus has said that President Kennedy had not asked him to intercede in Alabama's integration crisis.

It had been reported that Kennedy asked the governor to talk with Alabama Gov. George Wallace, an ardent segregationist. Over 1,000 Negroes continued their anti-segregation demonstrations in Birmingham, Ala., Sunday.

Faubus visited in Washington last week and met with Kennedy. The President promised to attend the dedication of Greer's Ferry Dam near Heber Springs next fall. The governor has been on vacation and did not return to Little Rock until Saturday night.

He spoke May 21 at Southern Baptist College commencement exercises at Walnut Ridge.

Hogs Unveil Dandy Crop of Sophs

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — University of Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles unveiled a dandy crop of sophomores Saturday night in a Red-White spring football game won by the Reds 21-19 before 6,000 fans in War Memorial Stadium.

The game was a real tribute to the recruiting job done by Broyles and his staff after the 1961 high school season. The sophs carried the game and one of them — quarterback Jon Brittenum, of Brinkley — almost stole the show.

One feature of the contest was supposed to be a struggle between three junior quarterbacks — Gordon Guest of Pine Bluff, Bill Gray of Helena and Fred Marshall of Memphis — for a line on the job left vacant by departure of Billy Moore.

Brittenum overshadowed Gray and Marshall, and only a great passing exhibition by Guest kept the Brinkley youngsters from being the whole show.

Young Johnny provided the big thrill — a 74-yard touchdown pass to junior end Jerry Lamb, who also caught a seven-yard scoring toss from Gray. They played for the Whites, who didn't get into the game until late.

Guest, running behind Marshall on the Red unit, hit 10 of 14 passes for 145 yards. The only dark spot in his performance was two interceptions. He set up one touchdown with a 31-yard pass to tailback Bobby Reynolds and scored one himself on a four-yard run.

Brittenum made only four connections in 15 attempts, but these earned 128 yards. He had no interceptions.

Broyles found a hard-running fullback in Jerry Jones, a 200-pound North Little Rock junior on whom the White quarterbacks depended when they needed yardage in close. Jones scored once from the one and gained 42 yards in all to lead the rushers.

Martine Bercher of Fort Smith, the third Red quarterback and like Brittenum a natural soph, got in on the scoring with a 59-yard pass to Gene Dunn.

Jim Lindsey, a sophomore from Forrest City, gained 23 yards for the Whites. Fullback Charles Daniel with 21 yards and Reynolds and Marshall with 18 each were the top gainers for the Reds.

All but 21 of the 71 players who took part were sophomores.

The clubs were evenly matched in statistics as well as scoring. The Whites, who trailed 14-0 and 21-6 before a late scoring burst, led 355 to 317 in total offense and 153 to 109 in rushing, but the Reds got more by passing, 208 to 202. The Razorbacks will end a month of spring practice with an

Standards in America Are Advancing

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer
An analysis of the "American character" has turned up a conclusion that people of the United States seem to be emerging from a period of permissive moral laxity and developing firmer standards.

The loose-principled beatnik fad is passing, and stauncher ideals are back in style, a section of the report maintains.

It was produced by the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions and involved interviews with Protestant, Catholic and Jewish leaders, as part of a series appraising American character.

One participant, the Rev. Dr. Robert E. Fitch, a specialist in Christian ethics and dean of the Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley, Calif., said the moral decline started after World War I, and continued for 40 years.

It has been marked, he says, by a "rise of relativism, of permissiveness, of a high degree of tolerance and laxity in the field of morals," accentuated after World War II by the beatnik movement, but 1960 was a turning point.

Indications now are that "the moral breakdown over this 40-year period has about run its course," he says, with college students turning once again "to a regard for moral law, for standards and principles," and parents becoming less permissive, more concerned with enforcing "objective standards of behavior."

The change is producing what Dean Fitch calls "a new breed of cats," and he says that in a sense, President Kennedy is an example of the "shift in temper."

He said the change was not percolating from the top down, but rather that the President's attitude and approach reflect "the general change in direction taking place throughout our society among the younger generation."

DOROTHY DIX

ACTOR PLACED HIS ROLE TOO WELL

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE
Dear Helen: I was unwittingly the other woman in a triangle and am still furious with the man, a well-known actor. It took me three years to find out he had a family. He posed as a spring chicken when a rooster in his forties.

He proposed marriage once the show in which he was appearing closed. I waited and waited. It was a hit. Finally the long run ended but still no wedding ring.

I told him, "Don't come back till you produce the ring." When he didn't return I got panicky and went looking for him. It was then I learned the truth from an actor friend: He had a wife and children in Canada.

Why did this happen to me. Was it my youth and inexperience? I'm not yet 21. Should I write his wife about what a louse she married? He got an Oscar for being a great actor but he's a heel of a man. I believed everything he told me, which makes me all the madder. I could crawl in a hole I'm so ashamed.

Tell me how to screen the fake from the real in this jungle of wolves. —Gullible

Dear Gullible: Unfortunately it is not always possible — unless you are experienced — to tell the false from the true. Wolves can hand out a line of sweet talk which impressionable young girls find irresistible. Next time one of these fast-talking charmers makes a play for you, laugh at him. This will deal a death blow to his ego and send him skulking off.

You are well out of this embarrassing situation. Don't be foolish enough to write the man's wife. She probably knows all about his extra-marital activities. Get interested in some nice boy your own age who, though not an Oscar winner, is decent and truthful.

Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Attentions from Married Men."

Dear Helen: Your column is packed with such good, solid advice, maybe you can pass some of it along to me. We are moving into a new neighborhood near a small town with a growing population. Our property consists of about 120 acres and a nice house which we intend to make our permanent home.

The section in which it is located is predominantly Protestant, we are Catholic, I being a convert. Already they are talking for we've heard it mentioned that we are so rich. While we do own property we are not that rich. Would appreciate any advice you can give us on how to get along with those around us. —What-to-Be-a-Good-Neighbor

Dear Want: Freedom to worship as we see fit is one of our inalienable rights. Loyalty to our faith will stamp you as a family of good character. The fact that you have money is not a liability; on the contrary, it can do much to enhance your position in the neighborhood.

Once settled in your new home, invite the neighbors in for a buffet supper — it's a nice informal way to get acquainted. If there are lots of little children give them a garden party with a May pole or stage a simple treasure hunt.

You are fortunate to possess so much land. Offer the use of it for charity bazaars whether given by Catholic or Protestant churches; volunteer for committees working on civic projects or in the hospitals. Contribute to charity drives. Join the community confidently with head high, knowing that you and yours will be welcomed as a force for good.

Dear Helen: I wrote you once before and got the information I asked and again am asking for help. As the sole support of three teens for almost a year I have been working an eight-hour shift at the hospital and an extra four hours at a variety store at night. I don't mind working at night but am so physically tired at times I feel no use to myself or to the children. Could you suggest ways for me to earn money at home? —Trying.

Dear Trying: Let those teens of yours turn in and help for a change. It's high time they were given responsibility. Make this a one-for-all and all-for-one deal. Give them a chance to develop character and initiative.

If boys, they could wash cars or deliver packages after school and on Saturdays. During the summer there are lawns to be mowed.

Have you a typewriter? If not, rent one and encourage the girls to learn to type menus for restaurants, bills for small business houses, letters for elderly people. If 16 or over there might be openings as part-time sales clerks in department stores. Also query the State Employment Bureau for suggestions; it's their function to help. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Turn Your Spare Time Into Cash."

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

U.S. Olympic Prospects Uncovered

By JERRY LISKA Associated Press Sports Writer

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP)—The U.S. track and field squad, which lacked many of America's big names, headed home from the Pan-American Games today with a half dozen Olympic prospects uncovered here.

The track team led the American forces who collected 108 gold medals of 157 awarded at the Games, along with 55 silver and 37 bronze medals for second and third places.

That was more than twice as many as all the other nations combined in the two-week carnival which ended Sunday. Brazil was second with 14 golds.

The Yankee track forces, although they were weak in the sprints, grabbed 16 of the 23 track gold medals on the line, losing the 100, 200, 800, 5,000 meters and 400-meter hurdles plus the marathon and the 20,000-meter walk.

The girl track athletes won six of 10 in their division. Many U.S. track stars chose not to leave school or their jobs for the Games, especially with the Olympics coming up in Tokyo next year, which put extra pressure on the lesser-knowns who came.

"This was a terrific demonstration by an American squad which was the best available at a bad time in the college academic year," said head coach Lou Montgomery of Cornell.

"Furthermore, the United States made a great step forward in Olympic preparations by uncovering a half dozen fine prospects who normally might never have made the Pan-Am squad."

"I'm speaking of men like Blaine Lindren, Gene Johnson, John David Martin, Ollan Cassell, Billy Joe and Jim Pryde."

Lindren won the 110-meter hurdles, Johnson the high jump, Martin the decathlon and the others were runners-up in the 200 meters, shot put and hammer throw, respectively.

They No Longer Laugh at the Chicago Cubs

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

It seems only yesterday that the Chicago Cubs were the biggest laugh in baseball. Everybody made snide remarks about the revolving coach system and the school of baseball knowledge. When Phil Wrigley appointed an athletic director, it was suggested he try for an Ivy League schedule.

Something strange has happened. The Cubs aren't funny any more. Whether it's head coach Bob Kennedy, the athletic director or the weather, the little Cubbies are big boys now. They are hanging in there in fourth place, only two games off the pace in the National League. When they beat Milwaukee Sunday 3-2 it was their sixth victory in their last seven starts.

A couple of players picked up from other clubs did the job Sunday. Merritt Ranew, once a Brave and more recently a Houston Colt, hit a homer and single and drove in two runs. Lindy McDaniel, a Cardinal last year, came in to complete the feat of saving every game in the three-game series.

While the Cubs were edging up, the leaders were faltering. Pittsburgh remained in first place by four percentage points, despite a four percentage point, despite a 7-3 defeat by Los Angeles. San Francisco hopped into the lead momentarily by beating the New York Mets 6-3 at the Polo Grounds only to drop back when they lost the second game 4-2 before 33,880, the season's largest crowd. St. Louis also muffed a chance to climb when they lost the opener to Cincinnati 5-4 and had to come up with four runs in the 10th to salvage the second game 7-4.

In the other National League action, Houston finally won a game for the Phillies when they took the second 6-2 after bowing in the opener 6-5.

The American League leaders also were moving in reverse. Kansas City remained on top despite a 3-2 defeat by Boston. Minnesota knocked off the New York Yankees 4-1 and Detroit came out of its deep sleep with a 12-4 bombing of Baltimore. Cleveland made it four in a row, downing Los Angeles 4-3. Chicago took the first from Washington 8-0 but lost the second 8-7.

Cal Koonce was the Cubs' winner with help from Jim Brewer and McDaniel. Lou Brock had three of the six hits off three Brave pitchers. Ranew started the scoring with a 429-foot homer, his first, in the third inning and drove in Ron Santo with a third-inning single.

The big crowd at the Polo Grounds finally got a chance to cheer when Carl Willey snapped the Giants' six-game winning string in the second game with a seven-hitter. Willie Mays' three-run homer in the first and Felipe Alou's two-run blast in the fourth beat Galen Cisco in the opener. The three-day series drew 128,985, boosting the ninth-place Mets' total to 235,004 for 10 home dates.

Jim O'Toole became the majors' first six-game winner in the opener against the Cardinals although he gave up 12 hits and left the game with none out in the seventh. Gene Oliver's two-run homer climaxed the Cards' four-run outburst in the 10th inning of the second game after an error by relief man Bill Henry opened the doors.

Jim Owens of the Reds was charged with two more balks as the National League umpires continued to call balks despite the instructions from President Warren Giles to take it easy. They now have called a total of 96, including five Sunday, to only nine in the American League.

The Dodgers managed their second victory in their last eight games on a three-run homer by

Individuals Did Well in Track Meet

By CARTER HARDAGE
Star Sports Writer

In District 4-AA track meet at Camden last weekend the Hope Bobcats didn't place very high but did turn in some outstanding individual performances.

Jack Russell set a new school record and finished first in the 880 run with a time of 2:02, only two seconds under the district record. Billy Aldridge ran the 100 in 10.3 for the 4th spot and he was 4th in the 220.

The 440 relay team of Porterfield, Horton, Wray and Aldridge set a new school record with 45 flat but came in 4th in the meet. Also 4th in the 880 relay were Samuels, Porterfield, Wray and Aldridge but their time of 1:34 was record for the Hope school. Jabo Horton finished 4th in the 440. Overall Hope place 5th in the meet.

In the Junior Division Eddie Aslin was 2nd in the 440. The mile relay team of Samuels, Ball, Watkins and Aslin came in third. Billy Aldridge was high for the seniors with four ribbons, Eddie Aslin had two for the juniors.

pinch hitter Lee Walls off Harvey Haddix's first pitch in the ninth. Ron Perranoski was the winner on relief over Vern Law, making his first start since his recall from the minors.

Don Demeter knocked the first game out of the Colts' group when he slid into rookie catcher John Bateman and knocked the ball out of his hands to score the winning run in the opener at Philadelphia. Dick Farrell evened matters with a seven-hitter in the second game. After it was all over, the Phils' Wes Covington was leading the league at 383.

Twins Defeat Yanks Behind Pascual Hurling

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Minnesota Twins may not send Camilo Pascual a contract until the day before the season opens, next year. The great right-hander apparently does not thrive on spring training.

A stubborn holdout in 1962, Pascual didn't sign until late March, but threw a shutout in his first regular season start and was 15-6 by July 27, when he hurt his arm. He finished 20-11.

This season the Twins signed him right after New Year's Day. Pascual got plenty of spring work, but he lost his first three starts when the season opened. He won his next two, but was not at his best.

Not until Sunday did he round into his normal eye-popping form, as he set the New York Yankees down with six hits and beat them 4-1. Roger Maris' homer in the seventh inning ruined his chance for his seventh career shutout over the Yanks. He already tops the majors in blanking the perennial champions.

The loss kept the Yankees 1 1/2 games back of the American League leaders, the Kansas City Athletics, who were also bounced, 3-2 by the Boston Red Sox. The Sox jumped into a second-place tie with New York. Dave Morehead, $75,000 bonus right-hander got his second victory for Boston.

In other AL games, Detroit snapped out of its slump with a 12-4 victory over Baltimore, with $100,000-plus bonus catcher Bill Freehan clubbing two homers and a double. Cleveland won its fourth straight, 4-3 over Los Angeles, and the Chicago White Sox split with Washington, winning 9-0 and losing 8-7.

In the National League, Pittsburgh retained a percentage points lead despite a 7-3 defeat by Los Angeles. St. Louis and San Francisco were tied for second after splits with Cincinnati and the New York Mets. Chicago beat Milwaukee 3-2, and Philadelphia and Houston split, 6-5 for the Phils and 6-2 for the Colts. Cincinnati won 5-4 and lost 7-4 in 10 innings to the Cards, and the Giants won 6-3 and lost 4-2 to the Mets before 53,880, largest crowd in the majors this year.

Cuban-born Pascual, now a Miami resident, was at his sharpest against the Yankees in the fourth inning, when Tom Tresh tripled with one out. He then struck out Mickey Mantle and Maris.

Pascual finished with eight strikeouts, and walked only one. Lenny Green hit a homer off Ralph Terry, the loser, in the first and Vic Power doubled home a run in the third.

Morehead, a 19-year-old whose other victory was a shutout over Washington, held the hard-hitting A's to one run and two hits over the first seven innings, but needed relief help from Dick Radatz in the eighth with one run across. Frank Nalzone and Chuck Schilling homered for Boston.

Detroit, still in the cellar, had lost four straight before the Tigers found their hitting eyes against the Orioles. Freehan's double and an error put the Tigers ahead in the fourth. Tom Sturdivant, picked up in a deal with Pittsburgh, was the winner in relief.

The Angels lost their fourth straight, as Bo Belinsky's record fell to 1-4. Dick Donovan had a 4-1 lead in the ninth, when the Angels got two, but Barry Latman stopped them in relief.

Hoyt Wilhelm's knuckleball apparently didn't knuckle, at Chicago. The relief pitcher came in with two out in the ninth and two on, in the second game, and Chuck Hinton hit his first pitch for a three-run homer that sank the Sox.

Ray Herbert pitched a three-hitter over the Senators in the first game. Dave Nicholson and Ron Hansen homered.

Both Bolton and Gunter will also figure in the mile run, along with Mike Wade of SMU, Marvin Silliman of Texas Christian, and A&M's trio—Ilhan Bilgutay, Herb Campbell and E. L. Ener, the 1962 two-mile champion.

Arkansas' John Deardorff is a good prospect in the mile, along with Jerry Brock of Texas Tech, Baylor's DeBoer and David Segrest.

Spa Semi-Pros Ask for Games

Hot Springs semi-bashers want to schedule games with other cities, according to word from Bob Terry, manager of the Spa nine. They particularly want games Saturday afternoon or Sunday. A new league may be formed, if enough clubs reply, according to Mr. Terry.

Please write Mr. Terry at 301 Lakeland Dr., Hot Springs, or call Steve Sitek at NA 4-1619, Hot Springs.

Nicklaus Is Winner at Las Vegas

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, who owns virtually all the prized possessions of the golfing game, as well as the most dollars for the year has unpleasant news for his fellow gentlemen of the greens.

He isn't even at his peak yet Jack, richer by $13,000 after his almost casual victory in the $60,000 Tournament of Champions Sunday, was asked if he thinks he is at the top of his game.

Eye-brows raised in surprise, he exclaimed: "I certainly hope not. I feel and hope I can improve. 'A man wants to improve at anything he does. That's how I feel about my future in golf.'"

Nicklaus capped his brilliant rounds of 64-68-72 with a 69 Sunday. He won the Las Vegas classic by five strokes with a 72-hole score of 273, 15 strokes under par.

Bill Casper Jr. was forced to withdraw because of a swollen, aching left hand after eight holes so Nicklaus' closest competitors were Arnold Palmer, the former king of the pros, and Tony Lema, who came in with a 66 to tie Stolen bases—W. Davis, Los Angeles, 6; Brock Chicago, 5; Los Angeles, and Altman and Flood, St. Louis, 5.

Pitching—Washburn St. Louis, 5-0; Simmons, St. Louis, 4-0.

Strikeouts—Washburn, St. Louis, 40; Sanford, San Francisco 37.

Palmer finished with a 68, but said, "I had a very unimpressive round. I was scrambling. I had quite a few putts that came up short."

Kentucky Derby Won by Chateaugay

By KELSO STURGEON
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky Derby winner Chateaugay, a colt reportedly months away from his peak as a 3-year-old, may make the public forget the so-called big three of the Triple Crown set.

The son of Swaps carried the Darby Dan Farm colors into the winner's circle at Churchill Downs Saturday after he bowled over the big three like they were not even in the $151,400 race.

"The Derby was the easiest race he's won since his first victory as a 2-year-old," trainer Jimmy Conway said. "I wasn't surprised that he won it—in fact, I thought he had a real good chance to get home first."

Conway said Chateaugay improves with every race and is far from his peak. "He runs better everytime he goes to the post. We think he will hit his peak next fall sometime, barring mishap."

Chateaugay, taken well off the pace by jockey Braulio Baeza, had so much left for the stretch run in the mile and one-fourth classic that he passed Never Bend and Candy Spots with no effort.

Cain Hoy Stable's Never Bend, making all the pace, finished second 1 1/2 lengths back of Chateaugay.

Rex Ellsworth's Candy Spots, the 3-2 favorite and unbeaten go into the Derby, was third, a neck back of Never Bend.

Ambush Stable's On My Honor finished fourth and Greentree Stable's No Robbery, the other member of the big three with Candy Spots and Never Bend, was fifth.

The first four finishers now head for Baltimore and the second jewel of the Triple Crown, the Preakness at Pimlico. No Robbery, who bucked his shins, will have to miss this one.

"I told Braulio to just ride the horse," Conway said. "I didn't give him any special instructions."

The victory, worth $108,900, was Chateaugay's fourth in four starts this year. He has total earnings of $34,770, picked up in winning six of nine starts and running two seconds.

Never Bend's torrid fractions of :23 seconds, 46 2-5, :10, and 1:35 2-5, pushed Chateaugay across the finish line in the good time of 2:01 4-5.

OUR ANCESTORS by Quincy

"Naturally our rents are a trifle higher—very few wigwags have hot running water 24 hours a day!"

Travelers Win 5 to 3 Over Buffalo

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—It was almost over before the started.

Arkansas' first six batters hit safely against Buffalo starting pitcher Carl Mathias in Sunday's single game and the Travelers rolled on to a 5-3 International League baseball triumph.

In other games, Syracuse shaded Richmond 3-2. Atlanta swept a doubleheader from Indianapolis 4-2 and 11-1. Columbus trounced Jacksonville 10-1 and Rochester swept Toronto 6-1 and 5-3.

John Upham started the Arkansas opening rally with a single. Then Norm Gigon tripled, Richie Allen tripled, Cal Emery and Danny Cater singled and Mickey Oarrington doubled.

The Travs held a 4-0 lead going into the second inning, added one more run in that frame and coasted home.

Atlanta's double-triumph boosted the Crackers into a tie with the Travelers for the Southern Division lead in the league.

Emery got another hit—two for the day — and continued to lead the league in hitting with a .415 average. Richie Allen maintained his hold in the home run division. He has five.

Manager Pedro Gomez of the Richmond Virginians would appreciate it very much if pitcher Al Downing's foot and first base became better acquainted.

Syracuse beat the Vees when the Chiefs plated three unearned runs in the first inning. Downing inadvertently kicked open the scoring door for the Chiefs when he kicked a routine play at first base. He took a throw from first baseman Fred Hopke one step from the bag and never moved any closer.

A walk followed Downing's lapse and the runs came next on an infield hit by Gates Brown (it should have been the third out) and a two-run single by Bill Roman.

Fayetteville to Host SW Track Meet

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—

Look for a close finish in the long races when the Southwest Conference track meet holds forth at Fayetteville next Friday and Saturday.

Take for instance the 880-yard run. Top competitors and their best times this year include Brian Bolton of Southern Methodist (1:52.5 seconds), Loy Gunter of Texas (1:53.7), Jim Sebastian of Texas A&M (1:54.7), Bill Sage of Rice (1:54.9), David DeBoer of Baylor (1:55.4) and Raydon Hicks of Arkansas (1:55.9).

Both Bolton and Gunter will also figure in the mile run, along with Mike Wade of SMU, Marvin Silliman of Texas Christian, and A&M's trio—Ilhan Bilgutay, Herb Campbell and E. L. Ener, the 1962 two-mile champion.

Arkansas' John Deardorff is a good prospect in the mile, along with Jerry Brock of Texas Tech, Baylor's DeBoer and David Segrest.

Ener, naturally, will be favored in the two-mile run. Other candidates will be John Eschle of Texas, Bilgutay, Deardorff, Wayne Comer of Rice and Gary Chisholm of Texas.

Another tight race is expected in the hurdles. Top prospects there are Bobby May of Rice, Rex Wilson of Texas, Ronnie Biffle of Texas Tech, Ralph Brodie of Arkansas and Verl Brown of Rice.

May, Wilson and Biffle all have run the 120-yard hurdles in 14.1 seconds.

This year the meet will have no low hurdles, but will run the 330-yard intermediate hurdles instead. Preliminaries and some finals will be Friday, and the other finals will be Saturday.
